Presentation of the first Eun Joong Chyung memorial certificate, honoring the memory of a young Korean who died while studying at the University of Dayton, will be awarded Sunday at the second annual International Tea on the campus.

The memorial award was suggested in a Daily News editorial last September soon after the 21-year-old South Korean died of cancer in the University health center.

Some Daytonian who, in the judgment of UD's foreign students, has done most to make the visiting students at home will be given the award.

The winner will be announced at the tea, to be held in the Flyers Hangar on campus from 1 to 3:30 p.m.
